Which type of sick visit provider?

All Primary Care Providers

The first person you call when you have a medical concern. Primary care providers can be doctors in family practice, internal medicine, pediatrics or other specialties.

Primary Care Medical Group

Primary care medical groups have multiple doctors who can provide primary care. These groups range from small practices to large organizations of doctors.

Primary Care Clinic

Primary care clinics are facilities staffed with doctors who can provide primary care for outpatients. Clinics are usually associated with a hospital or medical school.

Family Doctor

Family physicians provide preventive care and treatment for people of all ages. Practices may include obstetrics and gynecology, internal medicine, pediatrics, geriatrics, and psychiatry.
