

We're teaming up with Kits for Kidz — and kids win.

Exciting news for kids in need and the people who love them: Kits for Kidz[®], provider of student supply kits for over 20 years, has joined forces with School Specialty[®]. Together, now we can help schools and districts, nonprofits, religious and charitable organizations deliver kits of essential school supplies, hygiene items and more to kids — all with School Specialty's even greater selection and value.

Kits that bring all kinds of help.

Kits for Kidz has delivered over 2 million supply kits to those in need. Now its partnership with School Specialty gives nonprofits, school districts, relief organizations and other charitable groups an even more powerful tool to leverage their funding and deliver vital aid.
